What to do and when – our flower guide

At your planning stage

Use our pricelist to establish how much to budget for your wedding flowers.

Start collecting images of your ideas by saving them either online, create a Pin Board, save to your phone or within a scrap book. This helps to guide your florist through your like and dislikes. Don't worry if you are unable to a specific picture that captures all your ideas. It may be easier to use multiple pictures and explaining which bits of each image you love.

12 - 24 Months prior to your wedding

Whilst you have been collecting images and ideas online by saving them on Pinterest or by saving screenshots it is always a great benefit to look at which florist business name the pictures belong to. This ensures that you know the style of the florist and what wealth of experience they have. If you can't see the style you are looking for on their gallery, you are allowed to ask them if they are capable to create the designs you require and ask to see more images. When you have shortlisted your florists, hopefully including ourselves on the shortlist, then book your consultation with a member of our design team. Following your consultation you will receive a full quotation based on your ideas and individual theme. Should you wish us to fulfil your wedding flowers, then confirm to save your date and arrange payment of your booking £150.00 non refundable deposit. You will then receive your receipt and confirmation.

12 - 6 Months prior to your wedding

At intervals through your planning it is advisable to book a review appointment(s) to enable your designer to follow your changes. Your order will be updated and resent for you to check. We have scheduled events that may be of interest to you both, so look out for our newsletters.

2 – 3 Months to go

It is recommended to book your final appointment ahead. You have many appointments with other suppliers at this stage so get organised early with your time. At this appointment it is advisable that you have final numbers and will be confirmed and any amendments updated.

1-2 Months to go

On your final review, any changes and outstanding queries to be answered along with your final numbers confirmed. Delivery times to be decided. Any changes must be advised at this stage. Shortly after your review you will receive your final order and schedule. Please take time to check and advise us of any further amendments. We will require contact details of your suppliers to ensure that we are able co-ordinate your order with them where applicable. Your final balance along with security deposit for any hired items will be due no later than 1 month prior to your wedding date.

1 – 2 Weeks prior to your wedding

All sundries, vases, charms and handbags etc, you are supplying for us to incorporate will need to be packaged safely, labelled and dropped into the studio. We will not accept liability for your goods.

On your Wedding day

The flower magic happens, and all your planning creates a beautiful and breathtaking day.

After your wedding day

Items hired collected from your venue. Security deposits for your hired items to be refunded on the safe collection of all hired items.
